PROGRAMME

European conference organized by EUROGIP

The EUROGIP Discussions aim to promote the exchange of information between stakeholders at the European level on the impact of digital technology on health and safety at work. Speaking time is devoted to the exchanges between the speakers and the participants at the end of the round tables.

The conference is addressed to representatives of public authorities, companies (employees, HR, safety managers, QHSE & CSR, ...), social partners, prevention specialists, doctors and nurses, consultants, academics ...

The EUROGIP Discussions will be moderated by the journalist Régis de Closets. Simultaneous French / English translation will be provided.
